March 2018

Subscriptions 2018 Official Invoices are now available to download and pay

To access your official invoice, please select the 'Live Invoices' tab from the left hand menu. You will then see your Subscription 2018 Official Invoice. Click on the 'Download Invoice' button to open this as a PDF. You will need to print your official invoice and send this with a cheque for the full amount payable to Girlguiding. Any member of the level's User Group as well as the level's Treasurer can view/print the invoice. Your 2018 annual subscription payment should be received in full by noon Tuesday 3rd April 2018. After the four week trial invoice period no invoices can be amended in any way and all invoices must be 'paid in full'.

Please be aware that any cheques received at the Finance Team (Trading Services) after 3rd April 2018 will not be processed and will be destroyed. If you cannot pay your invoice or have any issues please speak to your local Commissioner who will be able to assist you further.

Please pay as soon as you can and let's not have any units being chased by Commissioners. Subscriptions don't come as a surprise.

Thank you.
Lyndsey

First Response Renewals

Please could we remind all leaders that your First Response certificates last 3 years and they must be renewed before they run out. You can renew up to 3 times (provided each renewal is in date). After the third renewal you will need to complete the full day course again. Details of First Response courses in Hampshire East are in the County Training Calendar 2018.

Can we ask that you check the renewal date on your certificate and make sure you apply to do the short renewal course well before your First Response expiry date. This will save both you and the training team a lot of time, and make sure that everyone is doing the right course.

If you miss your renewal date then you will have to do the full course again, taking 6 hours instead of the renewal course of 2-3 hours.

County Facebook Page

I have set up a County Facebook page as a publicity tool. The aim is to regularly post pictures of members of Girlguiding having fun and doing different activities. We want to show the general public that Guiding is more than craft and sedentary activities!

Of course, I need pictures to post. The easiest way is to add me to your unit/Division Facebook groups. If I see something that I would like to post I will message you to ask for your permission. Nothing will be posted without you assuring me that the parents have given permission.

If you cannot add me to your group, please send me a link and I will request to join your group.

As you know we have to make sure that we safeguard all our members. To this end please make sure you do not post pictures of girls from your unit on your Facebook page unless you have specific permission from their parents. The permission that parents have given via Girlguiding does not cover your personal Facebook postings unless it is a specific publicity posting e.g. for an event.

Hampshire Young People's Cathedral Service of Peace - World War 1 100

Years on

On Friday 15th June at 7.30pm, Winchester Cathedral are holding a service for all young people and youth organisations from across Hampshire. The service is being held by kind permission of the Lord Lieutenant of Hampshire and the Bishop of Winchester.

I have been representing Girlguiding on the planning team and I am keen for us to be well represented. I liaise with Hampshire North and Hampshire West after each planning meeting - we are all sending colour parties and groups of Guides and Senior Section with their leaders.

I am looking for volunteers to be part of the colour party and part of the attending group.

Ideally, I would like the girls to represent several units, for example two unit leaders could bring a group of six girls from their unit. Depending on the location of the participants we may arrange a coach to travel to the service.

All those attending will be expected to wear smart, correct uniform. We hope to have media coverage so please consider this when selecting girls.

To register your interest and for more information, please contact me.
