Vacancies for Region Representatives on Girlguiding's Council

South West Region are looking for three members to represent Girlguiding South West England on Girlguiding's Council. This is a forum of representatives from all Countries and Regions who engage with Girlguiding at national level offering a cross-section of individual views, but also consulting locally to gain the views of a wider group of people. The Region vacancies are for two members aged between 14 and 25 years of age, and one member of any age.

The term of office is three years from 30th June 2019. The Council meets once a year for the AGM, usually in May or June, with the frequency of additional meetings decided by the Trustees. It is of course important that our representatives make every effort to be available for these meetings throughout the three years they are in post. In addition there will be an induction day at Girlguiding HQ in May which the new Council members would be expected to attend. (If members aged 16 and under are unable to travel to a meeting with another Council member from the Region, Girlguiding will pay any reasonable travel expenses for an additional adult to accompany them.)
