Inside this leaflet are the details of training sessions for the coming year.

As adult leaders are expected to keep updated by attending at least one training every year, we hope that you will find sufficient opportunity in this calendar for you to achieve this requirement.

You can apply in two ways:

- 1) Complete the appropriate application form which you find on our website www.girlguidinghantseast.org.uk using the training link
- 2) Photocopying, completing and posting the attached form

All forms should be sent the County Administrator, Karen O'Connor, by email to: hantseastadm@outlook.com OR

by post to: 10 Denewulf Close, Bishops Waltham SO32 1GZ

You will receive confirmation within 2 weeks of application by email. If you wish confirmation by post please send an SAE. If you do not receive the confirmation within two weeks please contact Karen to check it has arrived!

Training fees: Evening and half-day sessions are £9 per person

First Response (full day) is £18 per person

LQ sessions are free

Please do not send money with applications—Invoices will be sent to Divisions at the end of each term. Bookings should be placed ASAP but at least 2 weeks before the session. If you do not turn up to the training, your Division will still be asked for payment and they will recoup it from you in whichever way they decide. Some Trainings fill up very quickly, so please book early.

County Training weekend 2019

We are holding a training weekend at the Marriott Hotel on 19/20 January 2019. On the Saturday, there will be sessions for current leaders on the New Programme three months on, and the opportunity for new leaders to complete all the trainings required for the ALQ apart from First Response. Safe Space Level 2, 3 & 4 sessions will be held on the Sunday morning.

The flyer and booking form for this event has been sent to all leaders via the Newsletter and Commissioners, and is available on the County website. Deadline for booking is 21 December.

Spring County Training Event 2019

There will be a County Training event at South Downs College on Saturday 18 May. This event will include programme sessions for all leaders, an LQ Day, and Safe Space and two First Response Renewal sessions. Flyer and booking form will be available in March and deadline for booking will be 30 April.

Outdoor Qualifications

The Outdoor team are hold a Going Away with...licence weekend 26th-28th April at Sandy Acres. Leaders will have the opportunity to camp, stay indoors or just come for the Saturday. The event will be open to leaders who have not used their licence in over 2 years or leaders looking to do Going Away modules or catering/first aid residential qualifications. Look out for the flyer and booking form early in 2019.
